5. General Business and Reports

5.1 Event Updates

Anjali Thorve requested that the Town circulate awareness and educational materials about Diwali and how it is celebrated in advance of celebrations. Ms. Thorve stated that a proactive approach may prevent community backlash regarding celebration of cultural events.

Discussion ensued regarding questions to ask Staff in the Communications and Creative Services Division regarding the posting of cultural celebrations on the Town's social media pages. Questions included:

- posting upcoming celebratory events online for public awareness;
- turning off comments on social media posts to limit online hate speech; and,
- including background information about cultural events such as why and how they are celebrated.

Kim Evans advised that the Accessibility Advisory Committee would be assisting with the Sensory Room at the Christmas in the Village event on November 23, 2024. Ms. Evans requested feedback from the Committee regarding providing financial support to purchase items for the Sensory Room.

Robin Steed recommended that the Committee contact the Snooze Room in Pickering and Grandview Kids for ideas and resources.

Recommendation:

Moved by Robin Steed

That $300 be drawn from the Whitby Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Committee's annual budget to fund the Sensory Room at the Christmas in the Village event.

Carried

5.2 Regional Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Symposium

Kim Evans provided an update regarding the Regional Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Symposium. Highlights of the Symposium included:

- resisting backlash and advancing equity;

- equity versus equality;
- presentations from municipal DEI committees; and,
- discussing upcoming goals for the municipal DEI committees.

5.3 Whitby Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Committee Work Plan and 2025 Committee Priorities

Kim Evans requested feedback from the Committee regarding the Committee's Work Plan and 2025 Committee Priorities.

Discussion ensued regarding:

- recommending to Council dates of significance for proclamations;
- guest speakers appearing before the Committee;
- obtaining name badges for Committee members for events;
- giveaways at events such as magnets, notebooks, and bookmarks;
- information to provide residents at Committee booths such as magnets with a QR code link to the Diversity Event Calendar;
- finalizing which events to attend at the beginning of each year;
- distributing engaging materials such life experience stories and recipe cards; and,
- creating a 'Town of Whitby Cook Book' that includes a recipe and a brief life experience story of the person who provided the recipe.

Kim Evans provided a list of 2025 events for Committee members to consider attending, which included:

- the Black History Month Event, Region of Durham, February 5, 2025;
- Youth Pride day with the Region of Durham, Spring 2025;
