4. General Business and Reports

4.1 Work Plan Update

Michele Cotton provided a summary of the Committee's Work Plan which included:

- making Work Plan recommendations based on the community survey results;
- updating the Accessibility Improvement Grant form; and,
- updating and finalizing the park audit that would commence in the fall.

4.2 Regional Accessibility Award Nominee

Michele Cotton provided an overview of the Regional Accessibility Awards. Ms. Cotton requested that the Committee provide recommendations for nomination.

Discussion ensued regarding local businesses to nominate, including Farm Boy, Walmart, and Melly's Market + Cafe.

A question and answer period ensued regarding:

- identifying organizations that provide accommodations;
- the criteria for qualifying for the award;
- consolidating a list of nominees for the Committee to vote on at a later date; and,
- all members providing nominations to Michele Cotton prior to the September meeting.

4.3 Accessibility Working Group Update

Michele Cotton advised that the Accessibility Working Group was a Staff group that focused on developing a multi-year Accessibility Plan. She stated that a strategic plan would provide a mission statement, goals, and actionable items rather than a 'to do' list of projects.

Discussion ensued regarding the preference for a strategic plan that incorporates action items.

4.4 Subcommittee Updates

Liam Lacy provided an update regarding the Customer Service and Communications Subcommittee which included:

- analyzing data from the survey results to establish action items; and,
- promoting and updating the Accessibility Improvement Grant form.

4.5 Council and Standing Committee Summer Recess

Michele Cotton advised that the Committee would recess during the summer, however, should a pressing matter come forward during the summer recess, the Committee may be asked to convene.

5. Council Update

Councillor Cardwell advised that the Province of Ontario must meet required accessibility standards by January 1, 2025.

6. Other Business

6.1 Accessibility Review

Liam Lacy requested feedback from the Committee regarding the Accessibility Review.

Michele Cotton advised that Rich Donovan was appointed by the Province to complete an independent review of the accessibility legislation. Ms. Cotton stated that his approach considers the personal impact of accessibility legislation.

6.2 Action Items

Paul Scott requested that action items be included in the minutes.

6.3 Document Repository

Paul Scott requested an update regarding a repository for Committee documents.

Michele Cotton indicated that she would set up One Drive for the Committee by September 2023.

6.4 Accessibility Compliance Audit

Michele Cotton advised that she would provide an Accessibility Compliance Audit update at the September meeting.

6.5 National Access-ibility Week

Michele Cotton stated that the City of Oshawa was hosting a Public Meeting during National Access-ibility Week to receive input from residents regarding accessibility within the City.

7. Next Meeting

Tuesday, September 5, 2023 - 7:00 p.m.
